

Membership Policy

Eligibility

Membership in the StraightTalk® Association for Financial Empowerment is open to members of the public who support the purposes of the Association as stated below:

- Supporting educational programs that build personal financial skills and provide a foundation for future financial prosperity
- Acting as a trusted resource for our local communities in providing financial tools and information that build sound financial knowledge, which in turn, will improve the financial future of our communities
- Encouraging self-sufficiency and good financial judgment by individuals throughout their lives

Dues

As a non-profit association, SAFE relies exclusively on the financial support of its members and donors and therefore requires members to pay annual dues as follows:

- Members are required to pay annual dues of $20.00 or $40.00 for a lifetime membership.
- Dues may be gifted by any third party on behalf of a member.
- Dues may be waived for eligible individuals per SAFE's bylaws and at the discretion of the Board of Directors.

Benefits of Membership

Members of SAFE are encouraged to provide input on SAFE's content and programs and to volunteer. If you are passionate about financial education and would like to get involved in SAFE's activities, please contact us!

Additionally, members of SAFE receive copies of the Association's periodic newsletters and are able to attend the Association's Annual Meeting of the Members and the Board.
